

Candidate filing for King County Personnel Board

King County Elections will hold a candidate filing period for the elected representative position on the King County Personnel Board. The candidate filing period will be held during regular business hours Monday, May 9, through Friday, May 13 in the King County Elections office, 919 SW Grady Way, Renton. There is a $5 non-refundable filing fee.

The county charter requires the elected representative on the Personnel Board to be a resident of the state of Washington and not currently employed by King County.

A primary will be held on Tuesday, June 7, to determine the final nominees up for election on Tuesday, June 28. The Personnel Board election will be conducted through the mail. If a candidate receives more than 50 percent of the vote in the primary, that candidate will be deemed elected and no further election will be conducted. Only career service King County employees are eligible to cast ballots.

The Personnel Board consists of five members, four of whom are appointed, and one member elected by county employees. The elected term is five years.

The Personnel Board conducts hearings on appeals to certain county personnel actions as provided for in Section 540 of the King County Charter.
